TUCK'S POST CARD

CARTE POSTALE. POSTKARTE.

By Appointment.

The Cossacks of the Don are among the fines and most daring riders in the world. Clad in their thick furdined coats and picturesquely armed with rifle and daggers, they easily and perform difficult feats of horsemanship at full gallop, feats which the ordinary circu rider only attempts in light and free clothing. Theu lithe and active ponies seem to thoroughly enter into the spirit of the sport, and a very genuine affection exists between the Cossack and his horse.
